HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT.

Began With Baccalaureate Sermon Sunday—Closed with Reception Last Evening.

Commencement exercises of the class of 1917 of the high school began last Sunday with a baccalaureate sermon in the town hall by Rev. David M. James, pastor of the Methodist church. The order of services included singing, responsive reading, scripture reading and prayer.

The graduation exercises took place Wednesday evening in the town hall which was tastefully decorated with ferns and potted plants. The class, which numbered five, together with faculty and members of the board of education were seated upon the stage above which was suspended the class motto Semper Fidelis on a shield. There was a large attendance and these present greatly enjoyed the very creditable showing of the pupils. The program for the evening was as follows: Selection, High School Capers, orchestra; invocation, Rev. F. H. Cole; selection, The Star Spangled Banner, orchestra; salutatory and essay National Aids, Pauline Delphy; selection, Our Nation, orchestra; class history, Gertrude Sprague; song, Forget Me Not, high school chorus; class will, Jason Wright; song, The Lost Chord, high school chorus; class prophecy, Nina Wellington; Dear Heart, orchestra; valedictory and essay Production of Photo Plays, John Snow; song, The Forge, high school chorus; presentation of diplomas, Prof. E. L. Wentworth, farewell song, words by Gertrude Sprague, class of 1917; march, A True American, orchestra.

The reception to the graduating class was held Thursday evening and was followed by several hours of dancing with music by Lyman's orchestra.
